To-day's League Games.

New York at Cleveland.
Brooklyn at Chicago.
Philadelphia at St. Louis.
Boston at Pittsburgh.
Baltimore at Cincinnati.
Washington at Louisville.

Chicago, June 23.—The Superbas were beaten in a close, small score game this afternoon. Jack Dunn was on the slab for the visitors, and he never pitched a better game in all his experience; but the clever little pitcher struggled in vain. Callahan kept the Brooklyn cracks at bay merrily throughout. The bases were filled on him in the seventh inning before the first man was retired; still, no one scored, such able sluggers as Kelley and Dahien failing to distinguish themselves. Kelley's best was a foul to Donohue, and Dahien's short fly to Lange doubled up Dunn at the plate. The same number of hits were made off each twirler. It was a hard blow to the Brooklyn man, who loses his splendid record of only being defeated once in fourteen games. Score: CHICAGO, 2; BROOKLYN, 0.

GIANTS PLAY EXILES TO EMPTY BENCHES.

Cleveland, June 23.—It was no trouble for the Giants to defeat the cast-offs to-day. Bates, the latter's pitcher, was wild and was hit hard besides. Van Halton, Gleason and Warner were the chief artists in the slugging line. The attendance was not over ninety.

The Brooklyn share of the gate receipts for their series of four games here was $107.75. The Giants will not receive much, if any more. One of the Cleveland players said to the Journal correspondent that he did not think the team would play in Cleveland after July 4. Arlie Latham wants to sign with the New York Club. He practised at Lathrop's before the game, and his arm has evidently regained its strength.

Catcher Mike Grady joined the Giants this morning. He has entirely recovered from the injury to his knee cap. Meekin is suffering from a painful boil on his face and will not be able to pitch until next week. Score: CLEVELAND, 10; NEW YORK, 0.

O'Brien Too Talkative.
Pittsburgh, June 23.—Pittsburgh could not hit and Bower could. O'Brien was put out of the game for talking back to Connolly. Score: PITTSBURGH, 1; BOSTON, 0.

YALE'S 'VARSITY CREW MAKING A TIME TRIAL.

YALE OARSMEN SCARED BY HARVARD'S NEW DAVIS BOAT.

HARVARD'S QUARTERS, Redton, Conn., June 23.—This spot was a busy one today. The new shell arrived from Yale, of New York, this morning, and Mr. Davis, his brother, and another workman have been busy all day getting the shell rigged.

Harvard oarsmen stayed in the boat-house all day studying the lines and innovations in the boat. Secrecy is not maintained, for Coach Storror realizes that it will be impossible for Yale to checkmate the fine crew of Harvard's graduates. The out-rippers arrived this afternoon, and the full force of men are working hard this evening and will be steadily at it all night, for it will be impossible to give the shell a trial to-morrow unless this work is done. Harvard men are jubilant, for they feel that if they can get the new boat running well they have something that will beat Yale surely.

COLUMBIA FRESHMEN BEAT WISCONSIN.

By N. P. Babcock.

Poughkeepsie, June 23.—Dr. Walter Peet is a very happy man, and has a right to be, for in two lively brushes between Columbia's freshmen eight and the dreaded Wisconsin 'Varsity crew this evening the freshmen showed great superiority, closing up three lengths of open water in a little less than a mile chase.

It was not a contest of the Wisconsin's seeking in fact, they tried to avoid it, McConville, their coach, dallying with them, letting only four row at a time until, seeing that it was useless to delay the brush if his men were to get any exercise at all, it was after 7 p. m.—he gave the order "away all," and down the river the two boats sped.

We were on the Columbia launch with Dr. Peet and are not certain that their cracks from Wisconsin knew that their opponents were only Columbia's freshmen; in fact, there is good reason to believe they took them for Columbia's 'Varsity crew. Their chagrin, if so, will be great eight. Their chagrin, if so, will be great eight. Their chagrin, if so, will be great eight.

COLUMBIA'S SAILS ARE IN READINESS.

Bristol, R. I., June 23.—The long-talked-of trial of the new cup defender Columbia will take place to-morrow morning, just five months to a day from the time her keel was run, on January 24.

The last stroke of work to be done on the yacht was finished shortly before 6 o'clock to-night, and beyond a little polishing and fitting below decks the new cup defender is complete.

The giant mainsail, which is said to contain 7,500 square feet of canvas, was bent this afternoon, together with her staysail, which is in steps, ready to break out the second her skipper gives the word.

As now arranged, the Columbia, in tow of her tender, St. Michaels, will leave the Herreshoffs' works between 7 and 8 o'clock to-morrow morning. After she has been towed into deep water off Hog Island Lightship, sail will be hoisted and she will proceed to Newport under her own canvas. The same about secrecy which has prevailed at the Herreshoffs has now been transferred to the St. Michaels, where no one will answer the simplest question in regard to the Columbia or her movements.

CREEDON BEATEN, BUT NOT PUT OUT.

Walcott Outpoints Him from Start to Finish.

Joe Walcott, the colored demon, and Dan Creedon, the Australian middleweight, fought their second battle last night. It took place at the Broadway Athletic Club and was fast throughout. In their first meeting Walcott knocked Creedon out with one blow. Last night, although Creedon was first to show in his corner, Creedon was the favorite in sentimental terms. He received a great round of applause. The sawed-off, knotty Walcott took his seat two minutes later and was received mildly. Creedon was the favorite in sentimental terms.
